Local Items.

BUTTER.—We made a mistake in our butter item of Tuesday in giving the amount brought in for shipment, the whole amount being exactly 1,384 tubs, instead of 742.

A Vermont paper says that the whole State is blossoming out with Grand Clubs.—Ed.

OUR readers who love good music will not forget the Concert to-morrow night by the Band of blind musicians, all graduates of the Perkins Institute for the Blind, Boston. We are assured by good home authority that too much cannot be said in commendation of these performers, and their object is surely worthy.

FOUND DEAD.—Major Charles W. Upham, paymaster in the United States navy, was found dead in his bed this forenoon, at Montpelier, we are informed. His age was fifty years.

THE General Convention of the Congregational Church will hold its annual session at St. Johnsbury on Tuesday June 16th and its proceedings, we understand, are to be more fully reported than heretofore.

THE GRAND LODGE of Vermont is now in session at St. Johnsbury, one of the most wide-awake villages in Vermont. We learn that a large number of delegates were in attendance and that the session will terminate on Wednesday evening or Thursday morning.

ENTERTAINMENT. The Leavitt Concert Troupe, of Vermont, will give an entertainment at Academy Hall to-night, at Swanton Thursday night, and at Highgate Falls Friday night. There has been a rush of entertainments here recently, but in spite of that we presume this troupe will have a good house, and will give a satisfactory equivalent for the admission fee. Go and see them.

ARMA VIRUMQUE.—A car load of arms passed through St. Albans last evening. The men—the awful Fenians—were not with them, however.

The Free Press expresses the opinion that the TRANSCRIPT knows just as much about Fenian matters "as the rest of us, and not much more." All right. "You pays your money and you takes your choice."

A RUN.—S. B. Watson, of this place, who was playing a game of billiard of 300 points at the Crystal billiard saloon, yesterday, on a second size Phelan & Colender table, made a run of 990 points—the best run ever made in this State, we believe. He worked the red balls into the jaw of the table twice during the run, and the most of the counting was done upon these while in that position.

THE Republican State Convention will be held in Burlington, on Wednesday, July 1st, at 11 o'clock a. m., to nominate candidates for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Treasurer, and also two Presidential Electors at large.

The delegates are to be chosen on the basis of one for each town, and one additional for every 150 votes cast for the Republican candidate for Governor at the last State election.

LINDA TRESSLE.—Little & Gay, publishers of the Living Age, Boston, have issued in neat pamphlet form the above named story, at 38 cents. Lovers of good reading will wish to secure it for recreation on a summer's day, and must, of course, secure it of the publishers, or order it through the booksellers. It was first published in this country in the Age, which contains more good reading than any weekly publication in the country.

PETER SAXE, Esq. of Troy, N. Y., a native of Highgate and a brother of our townsman, James Saxe, Esq., has written a very full account of all the mineral Springs of Franklin County except those discovered since his last autumnal visit. The Welden Spring at St. Albans had not, of course, come under his observation, and was not duly commemorated as it will be when Mr. Saxe knows of its valuable properties. Mr. Saxe's excellent article appears in one of the Troy papers and its length is one reason why it can not be republished in the DAILY TRANSCRIPT.

EDITORS OF THE TRANSCRIPT: I read the account of how initiations take place in lodges of Good Templars, in your paper last night, and permit me to say that it is entirely untrue. I am a Good Templar myself, and I can assure you that nothing of the kind ever took place in any lodge I have been in. Indeed, it strikes me as absurd that any one could for a moment credit such a statement. I hope you will, in justice to a good cause, give this denial a place in your columns.

Respectfully yours, A. TEMPLAR, St. Albans, June 10.

HON. HORACE GREELY LECTURES IN Burlington to-night.

MAMMOTH CONCERT TROUPE.—N. W. Leavitt, the justly popular concertizer, announces a newly organized Mammoth Concert Troupe, which consists of twelve first class performers, ten of whom are comprised in a Brass Band, six in a String Band, and all of whom sing, the whole forming the largest troupe of singers traveling. This organization is no second class affair, but is made up of ladies and gentlemen who are not afraid to show their natural faces. Neither are they broken down city performers, but all true sons and daughters of the Old Green Mountain State, the pure mountain breezes of which have given them sound lungs and strong voices, and the correct social habits of which have taught them to observe that deportment which becometh ladies and gentlemen. Look out for their newspapers extra.—Argus and Patriot.

The above Troupe sing as follows: Academy Hall, St. Albans, Wednesday evening, June 10; Swanton, Thursday evening, June 11; Highgate Falls, Friday June 12th.

E. W. CLARK, Agent.

SHIP ABOY!—The rumor which has gained more or less currency that the efforts made in Plattsburgh, North and South Hero, Grand Isle and St. Albans to establish a ferry between St. Albans and Plattsburgh had proved abortive, turns out to be all gammon. Capt. Tobias, of Grand Isle, assures us that a steamer called the "River Queen" has been bought, and is now steaming on her way to Shelburne Harbor to be inspected and put in apple pie order preparatory to running regularly between our Port and that of Plattsburgh. In about ten days the River Queen will commence her regular trips. Meanwhile let all make arrangements to enjoy "the good time coming" and without waiting much longer.

H. E. & S. H. LEWIS have this day, June 8th, opened a large stock of Dress Goods, comprising Wash Poplins, Tacko and Tripoli Cloths, colored and White Piques, Shawls, Parasols and Sun Umbrellas at reduced prices. 234

Miss Kate Randolph remarks that "even the calm and well-balanced mind recoils at the dreadful thought of the immense number of single ladies who are to adorn the present century in the old Bay State."

The Emperor Napoleon, though apparently in tolerable health, is said to be really far from well, being aware that he is afflicted with Bright's disease, or albuminuria, and that a cold or a fever might at any moment remove him.

A letter from Athens, just received in this city, says that the Greek government has just received Cretan deputies, which is a virtual recognition of Crete as a part of the Greek nation. This event is almost sure to lead to a war between Greece and Turkey, to be followed by a general European war, with France, Austria, and Great Britain leagued together to support Turkey.—Boston Traveler.

The Montreal Telegraph says the present rainy term, besides doing good to the farmer, has carried joy to the hearts of some old countrymen lately arrived, who slap their breasts, walk about in the rain, and delightedly exclaim, "Come, this is something like 'ome.' Accustomed as they are to an amphibious mode of existence in the mother country, the rain is to them a source of pleasure.

PATRIOTIC TO THE LAST.—A clerk dismissed from a position in the Treasury Department, writes a glowing letter to the Assistant Secretary, accepting the situation, and begging to assure him that "while his discovered head rolls upon the pavement, it still shouts the battle-cry of freedom." Dismissal from office evidently does such a head no hurt.

Have you seen Prang's Chromo? "Old Oaken Bucket," "Falconer and Bride," at H. Livingston & Sons.

MARRIED. At the Congregational church in St. Albans, on Tuesday, 9th inst., by Rev. Herman C. Briggs, Mr. Daniel Dutcher, of the firm of L. L. Dutcher & Sons, to Emily, daughter of C. F. Safford.

DIED. In Jersey City, June 1st, Jessie Mabel, only daughter of Maj. Z. K. Pangborn, Editor of the Jersey City Journal.

GOLD MINING IN MONTANA.

NASHVILLE, June 9.

The Democratic State convention to-day was fully attended. A platform was adopted, formally allying the Conservatives of Tennessee with the national Democratic party, declaring secession finally decided by war, but asserting the just rights of States. Strong ground was taken against the reconstruction policy of Congress, and in favor of the rightful supremacy of white men in the control of the government. The green-back policy was unanimously adopted. A majority of the delegates to the National Convention are Pendleton men.
